FROM THE PUBLISHER

RETURN TO WHAT Matters

Every meaningful season invites us to examine what truly matters. In this issue of Kingdom Voices Weekly, we are reminded that spiritual integrity begins in the heart before it is reflected in the life.

In our cover story, Dr. Shekita Jackson calls believers back to first love—a relationship with God that must never be replaced by routine, activity, or outward appearances. Her message reminds us that it is possible to stay busy with spiritual things while slowly drifting from the One who gives those things meaning.

We also turn our attention to stewardship through Dr. Michael Wright's timely teaching on financial accountability in ministry. Healthy ministries do not honor God only in message, but also in the systems, practices, and responsibilities that build trust and protect the mission.

Taken together, these voices call us to return to what matters most. What happens privately and what happens organizationally are both part of faithful Kingdom living.

My prayer is that this issue strengthens your walk, sharpens your discernment, and encourages you to pursue integrity in every area of life and ministry.

Thank you for being part of this growing Kingdom community. Together, we continue amplifying voices, inspiring lives, and advancing Kingdom purpose.

Return to what matters. The best is built from there.

RETURN TO YOUR FIRST LOVE

When Faith Becomes Routine, God Calls Us Back to Relationship

| THE WARNING TO EPHEBUS

Revelation 2 presents a church that was active, discerning, and persistent—yet something essential had been lost. The church at Ephesus had maintained its work, but Jesus confronted a deeper problem: it had left its first love.

Dr. Shekita Jackson brings that warning into the present. A believer can remain busy with church, ministry, responsibilities, schedules, and even sound doctrine while slowly losing the joy and intimacy that once gave those things life.

The danger is subtle because outward activity can continue long after inward devotion has cooled.

| WHEN DOING REPLACES BEING

The question is not simply whether we are serving God. It is whether our service still flows from love for God. Dr. Jackson challenges believers to examine the difference between doing church and walking closely with Christ.

“

The cure is

REPENT
AND RETURN.DR. SHEKITA JACKSONLife Under Construction

COVER STORY

RETURNING IS NOT GOING BACKWARD

Return is not regression—it is redirection. It is God's invitation to leave the wrong path and embrace the right Person. Repentance is not about shame; it is about change. It is the doorway back to intimacy, purpose, and peace.

WHAT RETURN LOOKS LIKE

01

REMEMBER

Recall God's goodness and faithfulness. Let His goodness lead you back.

Psalm 103:2

02

REPENT

Turn from what's misaligned and choose obedience. Change your mind so God can change your path.

Acts 3:19

03

RETURN

Come back to the place of intimacy, worship, and trust. He is waiting with open arms.

Luke 15:20

04

REORDER

Invite God to realign your heart, priorities, and plans. Let His order become your new normal.

Proverbs 3:5-6

THE INVITATION IS CLOSER.

God has not turned away from you. He is stretching out His hand right now, calling you home. No matter how far you've drifted, His grace is greater.

Return today. He's waiting.

Long obedience in the same direction as GOD changes everything.

HEART CHECK

Take a moment to reflect and realign.

What has distracted me from God?

What area of my life needs repentance?

Am I willing to return to God fully?

How can I reorder my life around His will?

DR. MICHAEL WRIGHT
Kingdom Conversations

We ask the hard questions so the Kingdom can move forward in truth.

Conversations that challenge. Truth that transforms. Kingdom that advances.

We examine culture through the lens of Scripture—not the world.

We equip believers to be influencers, not followers.

Through Kingdom Conversations, Dr. Michael Wright creates space for honest dialogue that challenges believers to think biblically, lead faithfully, and live on mission. His heart is to bring clarity in a confusing world and to help God's people walk out their calling with confidence and conviction.

5 QUESTIONS EVERY MINISTRY SHOULD ASK

- 1 Are we building our ministry on personal preference or Kingdom purpose?
- 2 Is our leadership accountable to Scripture and sound counsel?
- 3 Are we more concerned with platform or eternal impact?
- 4 Do our actions reflect the message we preach?
- 5 Are we leaving a legacy that will outlive us?

THE DANGER OF GOING Through THE MOTIONS

"This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me."

— MATTHEW 15:8 (ESV)

It's easy to look spiritual on the outside while our hearts drift on the inside. We show up, we serve, we sing, we give—but are we truly surrendered? Going through the motions can become a silent thief. It steals our joy, weakens our witness, and blinds us to the voice of God.

God is not impressed with performance—He is seeking genuine devotion.

SIGNS YOU MAY BE GOING THROUGH THE MOTIONS

- ✓ You feel dry in prayer and unbothered by it.
- ✓ You serve, but it feels like an obligation.
- ✓ Worship feels more routine than real.
- ✓ You're quick to judge, slow to love.
- ✓ You're busy for God, but not with God.

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven." — MATTHEW 7:21 (ESV)

KINGDOM TAKEAWAY

God is not looking for robots—He is looking for real relationships. Don't just go through the motions—be moved by His Spirit.

God doesn't need our activity—He wants our heart.

HOW TO RETURN TO A HEART OF DEVOTION

REFOCUS

Spend time with God in His Word and in prayer. Let Him realign your heart.

REPENT

Invite the Holy Spirit to search you and reveal anything that grieves Him.

RENEW

Make space for worship, rest, and the things of God—not just the work of God.

RECONNECT

Surround yourself with people who will speak truth and encourage your walk.

REMEMBER

You're not called to religious routines—you're called to relationship.

*True worshipers
worship in spirit and in truth.*

— JOHN 4:23 (ESV)
