AMPLIFYING KINGDOM VOICES. INSPIRING KINGDOM LIVING.

FROM THE PUBLISHER

WELCOME TO
Kingdom Voices Weekly

When we launched Kingdom Purpose Media, our vision was never simply to create another broadcasting platform. It was to provide a place where Kingdom voices could be heard, encouraged, and shared with people who are hungry for truth and purpose.

As our Impact Hosts faithfully poured into the lives of others each week, I began asking myself a simple question:

How do we extend the reach of these messages beyond the broadcast?

That question led to the creation of Kingdom Voices Weekly.

Rather than waiting a month to celebrate what God is doing through our hosts, we chose to publish every week. A weekly publication allows us to amplify the voices of our Impact Hosts, highlight the work God is doing through their ministries, and keep our viewers connected to the conversations that are shaping our community.

Each issue is an invitation to discover inspiring teaching, meaningful conversations, and Kingdom-centered encouragement. Whether you’ve been with us from the beginning or this is your first time joining us, we’re grateful you’re here.

Thank you for being part of the Kingdom Purpose Media family.

Together, we’re amplifying Kingdom voices—one week at a time.

More Than Programming. A Kingdom Assignment.

By Vernon T. Matthews, Jr.

When people discover Kingdom Purpose Media, they often see a growing lineup of broadcasts, teachers, conversations, and Kingdom voices. What they may not immediately recognize is that behind every program is a much greater purpose.

Kingdom Purpose Media was never created simply to produce content. It exists to create opportunities for voices that carry biblical truth, practical wisdom, and Kingdom purpose to reach people wherever they are.

Each Impact Host brings a unique assignment. Some teach. Some encourage. Some challenge. Others equip believers to live out their faith in practical ways. Together, they form a network committed to advancing God’s Kingdom through authentic, Christ-centered programming.

That same vision inspired the creation of Kingdom Voices Weekly.

Kingdom Purpose Media isn’t simply building a platform—we’re cultivating a place where Kingdom voices can be heard, lives can be strengthened, and purpose can be awakened.

This publication extends the conversation beyond each broadcast. It celebrates the work of our hosts, highlights what God is doing throughout the ministry, and gives our community another place to stay informed, encouraged, and connected.

As Kingdom Purpose Media continues to grow, our mission remains the same—to amplify Kingdom voices that inspire faith, cultivate purpose, and point people toward Christ.

Whether this is your first time connecting with us or you’ve been with us from the beginning, we’re honored to have you on this journey.

Welcome to Kingdom Purpose Media.

Saved People Go to Church

 MONDAYS • 5:00 PM

Prophetess Lashonda Hartdige delivers a timely and thought-provoking message that clears up a common misconception. Salvation is received by faith in Jesus Christ—but spiritual growth happens in community.

With grace and conviction, she reminds believers that church is not about religion, it’s about relationship, accountability, worship, and becoming who God has called us to be.

“ You don’t have to go to church to be saved... but saved people go to church. ”

The Power of a New Season: Defying the Laws of Time

By Apostle Charles Matthews

FEATURED TEACHING | Adapted from this week's episode of Kingdom Common Sense with Apostle Charles Matthews.

“There is a season,
and a time for every purpose under heaven.
— Ecclesiastes 3:1 (KJV)

In our natural world, we are governed by Chronos—the ticking clock, the calendar, and the linear progression of time. We use it to measure our labor, our age, and even our limitations. But when you step into the realm of the Kingdom, you realize one transformative truth: God doesn't need time.

BEYOND THE NATURAL CLOCK

In Ecclesiastes 3, we are reminded that there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven. Most people live their lives trapped by the “time” medical science gives them or the “time” their bank account suggests it will take to recover.

But faith has the authority to trump the laws of Chronos.

Whether it's God extending Hezekiah's life by fifteen years or commanding the sun to stand still for Joshua, the message is clear: your current circumstances are not a life sentence. They are simply a season, and seasons are subject to the Word of the Lord.

EMBRACING THE RHEMA

A “New Season” isn't just a date on a calendar; it's a prophetic posture. It begins the moment you receive a Rhema—a specific, spoken word from God—and embrace it by faith.

Many people miss their shift because they aren't postured to receive. They are highly developed in their trouble but underdeveloped in their expectation.

To step into your next, you must move beyond just “hearing” the word to expecting the manifestation.

THE BATTERING RAM OF PROPHECY

Sometimes, the Word of God doesn't just come to confirm; it comes to conquer. Think of prophecy as a battering ram. It is designed to bust down the doors that Chronos said were locked.

It is meant to catapult you into places that your natural history said you couldn't go.

If you've endured seasons of pain, lack, or sickness, know this:
your “after” is here.
Your latter will be greater than your past.

YOUR DECLARATION

The power of a new season is implemented by your faith. It's time to stop talking about the “gray” of your past and start speaking the language of your future.

God is accelerating your progress, and your shift starts the moment you decide to believe Him.

THIS IS YOUR NEW SEASON.
Embrace it. Expect it. Walk in it.

KINGDOM REFLECTION

- What area of your life have you allowed time to define that God is calling you to redefine through faith?
- Are there promises God has spoken that you need to start expecting for the manifestation?
- How will you position yourself daily to receive His Rhema?

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, thank You for reminding me that my purpose is found in You and not in my circumstances. Help me to walk in obedience, trust Your timing, and live each day as a reflection of Your Kingdom. Give me wisdom to recognize the opportunities You place before me and the courage to follow wherever You lead. In Jesus' name, Amen.

“He is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us. — Ephesians 3:20 (KJV)
